

2004 European elections results

The European Elections were held on Thursday, 10 June 2004. 10 MEPs were elected for the South East region.

Unlike the Borough and Westminster elections, a proportional system of voting was used for European Elections, the 'Closed List' system.

The 10 seats for the South East region were distributed between the political parties in proportion to the share of the overall vote that they received.

The results for the South East Region are set out below.

Party	Votes (%)	Total MEPs
Conservative	35.2	4
UK Independence Party	19.5	2
Liberal Democrat	15.3	2
Labour	13.7	1
Green	7.9	1
British National Party	2.9	0
Senior Citizens Party	1.9	0
English Democrats Party	1.3	0
Respect (The Unity Coalition)	0.6	0
Peace Party	0.6	0
Christian People's Alliance	0.5	0
ProLife	0.3	0
Independent - Rhodes	0.3	0

The contact details for the 10 MEPS elected for the South East region is now available.

For further information, please contact Electoral Services on 01483 743860, or email, elections@woking.gov.uk